Camp Aranzazu At a Glance

Our Name

“Aranzazu” is a Basque term that means “a spiritual place requiring a difficult path to reach.”

Mission

Camp Aranzazu (pronounced Ah ran’ zah zoo) is dedicated to enriching the lives of children and adults with chronic illnesses and special needs by providing unique camping, environmental education and retreat experiences.

History

Located on 104 acres near Rockport, Texas, Camp Aranzazu sits on property that was previously an Episcopal Church retreat. The land was later purchased by Tom and Holly Forney, who decided they wanted to do something to serve others while also protecting this historically and ecologically rich land in the Coastal Bend area.

They established Camp Aranzazu as a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization in 2002. The first campers attended in June 2006. The camp was accredited by the American Camp Association in 2007. Since that time, more than 23,000 campers and their support staff have enjoyed time at Camp Aranzazu.

Quick Facts

- 501(c)(3) non-profit organization
- Open year-round
- 9 full-time staff, 9 part-time, 18 seasonal
- One of only three camps in Texas and the only camp on the Texas coast that serves as a host facility for children and adults with special needs and chronic illnesses
- 2019 budget is $1,799,500.

Our Campers

- Each group of campers has a different challenge, such as epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, Down syndrome, autism, cancer, spina bifida, asthma, cerebral palsy, juvenile diabetes, kidney disease, adolescent obesity, head and spinal cord injuries, neurological differences, and hearing and sight impairments, just to name a few.
- Campers come from 50 Texas counties.
- Approximately 52% come from the Coastal Bend area; 20% from Houston; and 28% from San Antonio.

- As a host facility, we provide meals and lodging. We customize each session to meet our partners' goals. Our highly trained programming staff facilitates all activities. Our partners bring campers, in-cabin counselors and medical staff.
- In general, campers pay one-third of the actual cost. Camp Aranzazu relies on support from the community to help underwrite the remainder, which will total over $1.3 million in 2019.

Facilities

- The facility is completely barrier-free.
- We have 135 beds, plus approximately 20 additional beds for staff and counselors.
- The camp meets the stringent requirements of and is accredited by the American Camp Association and State of Texas for Youth Camps.
- A state-of-the-art health center allows campers to receive the care they need without leaving the premises.
- In 2016, we added a new dining hall, 52-bed cabin and a much larger pool. We then converted our former dining hall into a dedicated art center.
- The camp also has a second pool, a sanctuary, Ropes challenge course, archery range, kayaking and fishing ponds, an open air pavilion, a total of four sleeping cabins, a great lawn, paved walkways, and nature trails.
- We have 27 acres of waterfront and wetlands on Copano Bay that is accessible via a bridge from the main campus. This area includes a nature education pavilion, boardwalks, pier, breakwater, and bird blind.

Programs

- Each member of our program staff has a bachelor's degree and two of them are Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialists.
- Because every group of campers has its own unique challenges, we tailor each camping experience to meet the needs and objectives of those specific campers.
- We offer kayaking/canoeing, paddle boarding, archery, swimming, fishing, arts and crafts, nature, music, drama and games. We also have a Ropes challenge course.
- Our art program includes painting, mosaics, leather crafts, digital photography, videography, ceramics, music and cooking.
- We are collaborating with The University of Texas Marine Science Institute, The Harte Research Institute for Gulf of Mexico Studies at Texas A&M University – Corpus Christi, the Texas State Aquarium, and the Coastal Conservation Association to create a program that will help campers develop knowledge of and an appreciation for the uniqueness of the Texas Gulf Coast.

ACTIVITIES AND PROGRAMS

Camp Aranzazu developed a unique approach called “Intentional Camping,” which is the purposeful design of a camping experience to nurture the physical, social, emotional, and mental development of each camper. In short, every activity is designed with a specific goal in mind.

We seek to help our campers:

- 1 Challenge their beliefs about themselves and their capabilities;
- 2 Gain confidence, have fun, and try new activities; and
- 3 Develop a social support network and decrease any sense of isolation by spending time with others who face similar challenges.
